Mining Sector News

Global Mining News:

Trump, Xi likely to speak soon on minerals trade dispute, aides say
U.S. President Trump and China's President Xi are expected to discuss trade issues, focusing on critical minerals. Trump accused China of breaching an agreement to reduce tariffs. Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent is optimistic the issue will be resolved in an upcoming call. No date has been set, according to economic adviser Kevin Hassett. Talks also involve last month's Geneva agreement on tariffs.

Africa Mining News:

France's Eramet says it will work with Gabon despite manganese export ban

French miner Eramet has pledged to protect 10,460 jobs in Gabon despite a planned 2029 manganese export ban. Eramet, the main shareholder in Comilog, plans to maintain a constructive partnership with Gabonese authorities. The company had halted operations briefly after a 2023 military coup. While some manganese is processed locally, most is exported. Eramet supports continued dialogue amid changing regulations.

Ghana Mining News:

Gold sector welcomes extension of licensing deadline

The Chamber of Licensed Gold Buyers has welcomed the extension of the gold trading license transition deadline. The Ghana Gold Board now allows existing PMMC and Lands Ministry-issued license holders to operate until June 21, 2025. After that, only GoldBod licensees can legally trade in gold. The board warned that using old licenses beyond the deadline violates Act 1140. The move aims to streamline and regulate gold trading under the new regime.
